Dear Consultee

Consultation on NILGOSC's Vision, Mission, Values, Strategic Aims and Objectives

NILGOSC is currently carrying out a consultation on the draft statement of its Vision, Mission, Values, Strategic Aims and Objectives and would like to give you the opportunity to comment and help shape the service that we provide.

NILGOSC reviews these high-level elements of its strategic plan every three years and details of the strategic review process currently underway is set out in the attached summary document. This document sets out the background to NILGOSC as a pension service provider as well as the context within which the review has been undertaken.

The purpose of this consultation exercise is to obtain your views as a stakeholder in the NILGOSC pension scheme. A copy of the draft Vision, Mission, Values, Strategic Aims and Objectives is set out in the attached consultation document and can also be accessed through our website at www.nilgosc.org.uk.

NILGOSC will publish a summary of all responses received following completion of the consultation process. All responses to this consultation will be subject to the Freedom of Information Act 2000, which gives the right of access to the information held by public authorities. Before you submit your response, please read Appendix 1 about the effect of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 on the confidentiality of responses to public consultation exercises.

A screening exercise was undertaken on the draft Vision, Mission, Values, Strategic Aims and Objectives to determine if an Equality Impact Assessment is necessary. The outcome of this screening exercise was not to conduct an Equality Impact Assessment and the full screening report is available on NILGOSC's website at www.nilgosc.org.uk.

All consultation documents can be made available in alternative formats such as large print, computer disk, Braille, audio tape and languages other than English. If you would like the document in an alternative format please contact the Equality Officer using the details below:

Freedom of Information Act 2000 – Confidentiality of Consultations

NILGOSC will publish a summary of responses following completion of the consultation process. Your response, and all other responses to the consultation, may be disclosed on request. NILGOSC can only refuse to disclose information in exceptional circumstances. Before you submit your response, please read the paragraphs below on the confidentiality of consultations and they will give you guidance on the legal position regarding any information given by you in response to this consultation.

The Freedom of Information Act gives the public a right of access to any information held by a public authority, namely NILGOSC in this case. This right of access to information includes information provided in response to a consultation. NILGOSC cannot automatically consider as confidential information supplied to it in response to a consultation. However, it does have the responsibility to decide whether any information provided by you in response to this consultation, including information about your identity should be made public or be treated as confidential. This means that information provided by you in response to the consultation is unlikely to be treated as confidential, except in very particular circumstances.

The Lord Chancellor's Code of Practice on the Freedom of Information Act provides that:

- NILGOSC should only accept information from third parties in confidence if it is necessary to obtain that information in connection with the exercise of any of its functions and it would not otherwise be provided;
- NILGOSC should not agree to hold information received from third parties "in confidence" which is not confidential in nature;
- acceptance by NILGOSC of confidentiality provisions must be for good reasons, capable of being justified to the Information Commissioner.

For further information about confidentiality of responses please contact the Information Commissioner's Office (or see website at: www.informationcommissioner.gov.uk).
